FUN JULY FACTS

- The name July was named after Roman general Julius Caesar.
- July is in the Summer season in the northern hemisphere and one of the warmest months. July in the southern hemisphere is one of the coldest.
- Early July, historically is called the dog days of summer because it's the beginning of the hot summer days.
- The fourth of July is the only federal holiday (national holiday) in July. Independence Day is in celebration of the United States declaration of independence from Great Britain. America's birthday. The Declaration of Independence was signed by Thomas Jefferson, John Adams, and John Hancock.
- Neil Armstrong made history on July 29, 1969, by taking the first steps on the moon. His famous declaration "That's one small step for man, one giant leap for mankind!"

Message From Glenn Brewer, Director

I don't know if it's just me but this seems to be one of the hottest summers we have had in a while. Please make sure to keep hydrated by drinking plenty of fluids. You can get a number of health complications from dehydration and it can sneak up on you. One of the early signs of heat stroke is stomach cramps so if you are experiencing any symptoms, get into a cool room and force fluids. The recommended daily intake of fluids is around 9 cups.
